THAILAND'S CAVE RESCUE

Listening for Gist and Detail — Audio 4.01 & 4.02

YOUR MISSION

In the B1 Preliminary (PET) exam, you are tested on your ability to extract key information from real-world audio. Today, your mission is to listen to a news report about the Thai cave rescue and demonstrate two core listening skills: understanding the overall message (gist) and identifying precise details.

TASK 1

VOCABULARY PRE-LISTENING

Match the words with their definitions. Write the correct letter (a–e) next to each word.

1. trapped _____

2. flooded _____

3. rescued _____

4. reckless _____

5. panicked _____

a) Saved from a dangerous situation.

b) Unable to escape.

c) Felt sudden, uncontrollable fear and lost control.

d) Acting without thinking about the risk or danger.

e) Completely filled with water.

TASK 2 LISTEN FOR GIST — AUDIO 4.01

Listen to the first part of the newscast (Audio 4.01). Circle your answer.

Was the newscast produced before the boys were rescued, or after?

BEFORE

AFTER

TASK 3 LISTEN FOR DETAIL — AUDIO 4.02

Listen to the whole newscast (Audio 4.02). Decide if each sentence is True (T) or False (F). Write T or F in the box.

1. Twenty-five-year-old coach Ekapol Chanthawong led 12 boys into a cave.
2. Some people think the coach is the “bad guy” of the story.
3. After nine days in the cave, the boys were panicking when they were found.
4. Coach Chanthawong showed strong leadership skills in the cave.
5. After the boys were found, it was still extremely difficult to bring them out.
6. The host makes it clear that she believes that Ekapol Chanthawong is a hero.

TASK 4 LANGUAGE FOCUS — OPINIONS & JUDGMENTS

Read the phrases below from the audio script. Underline any words or phrases that express an opinion or judgment.

Guest 1: “...anybody who leads a group of young boys into a dangerous situation is just reckless.”

Guest 2: “I think that shows incredibly strong leadership.”

Guest 3: “I’m not sure we should judge him for that.”

Host: “Whether or not he used bad judgment... coach Chanthawong showed courage and strong leadership.”

TASK 5 DISCUSSION — HERO, VILLAIN, OR SOMETHING ELSE?

Discuss these questions with your partner. Use the opinion phrases from Task 4 to support your ideas.

1. What do you think: was the coach a hero, a villain, or something else? Why?

2. Can someone make a bad decision but still be a good person? Give an example.
