

Name - Surname _____ Grade _____ No. _____

B1

WRITING

HEROES

SOMEONE I ADMIRE

Building a profile and supporting your opinion with facts.

YOUR MISSION

In the B1 Preliminary (PET) Writing exam, you must clearly express and support your opinions. Today, you will build a detailed profile of an admirable person and draft a 225-word description that provides facts and real-life examples to back up your views.

Identify Traits

Use
Adverbs

Support
Facts

TASK 1 THE ADMIRABLE PROFILE

Choose a person you admire. List three admirable traits and provide a supporting fact for each.

Admirable Trait

Supporting Fact / Example

TASK 2 ADDING ATTITUDE

Rewrite these sentences using: Amazingly, Surprisingly, Remarkably, Fortunately, Clearly, Generously.

1. She won the gold medal despite her injury.

2. He survived the crash without any scratches.

3. They decided to donate all their money to charity.

4. He found his missing passport just before the flight.

5. The team managed to win the game in the final minute.

6. She has written ten books by the age of twenty.

ระบายวงกลมด้วยปากกาหรือดินสอตามชั้นเรียนและรหัสนักเรียน (ห้ามเขียนชื่อ)

CLASS

M

① ② ③

① ② ③ ④ ⑤

A B C

STUDENT ID

1 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

2 (0) (1) (2) (3) (4) (5) (6) (7) (8) (9)

3 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

4 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

5 (0) (1) (2) (3) (4) (5) (6) (7) (8) (9)

TASK 3

FIRST DRAFT

Write your first draft of a description of a person you admire (approx. 225 words).

Remember to state your opinion clearly, use attitude adverbs, and support your points with facts.

[illegible]

